

THE THINKERY PRESENTS

Doug Clark,

Author of Gunboat Justice

Topic:

The rule of law
with Chinese characteristics

Foreign gunboats forced China, Japan and Korea to open to the outside world in the mid-19th century. Author Douglas Clark tells the story of “extraterritoriality” under which Britain and the United States ran law courts in Shanghai (and the rest of China) for over 100 years, and the impact of these systems continue to have in Asia today.

Date/Time: Dec 1, 7.15pm
