

PYONGYANG ENTREPRENEURS

BUSINESS STORIES FROM NORTH KOREA

North Korea often appears to be little more than a hopelessly secluded country with one of the worst economies in the world. But on the ground, things are changing: Ambitious locals are starting businesses and finding ways to succeed in this challenging environment. Choson Exchange supports them with hands-on trainings on entrepreneurship, finance, policy, and law. Join this talk for an inside account of how life is changing in the DPRK.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 7:30PM @ THE FIX

Nils Weisensee is Head of Operations at Choson Exchange, and is travelling to the DPRK several times per year to teach business skills to North Koreans.
