

“Dark history of the USSR: deportations & genocides”

Ingush, Chechens and many others

Albert Khaoutiev

On February 23, 1944, the entire Ingush and Chechen nations were exiled from their ancestral lands and deported to Siberia and Central Asia. Hundreds of thousands were killed in an act that would be recognized as a “genocide” in 2004 by the European Parliament.

Wednesday, February 22, 7:30 PM @ The Fix

How to find us:

Bldg 2, 283 Jianguo Xi Lu, near Jiashan Lu
建国西路283号, 尚街2楼, 近嘉善路
Nearest subway stop: Jiashan Road (line 9)

The Thinkery – “Everything is interesting”