How could Earth's changing climate impact socioeconomic systems across the world in the next 30 years? A year-long, cross-disciplinary effort led by today's speaker has yielded a McKinsey report with some answers.

Jonathan Woetzel is Senior Partner in McKinsey's Shanghai office and Asia Director of the McKinsey Global Institute. In addition to his work advising domestic Chinese and multinational businesses on their strategic issues, he also co-leads the Urban China Initiative (UCI), a think tank devoted to transforming China's urban future, and is a lecturer at Beijing University's Guanghua School of Management and the China-Europe International Business School (CEIBS), and an honorary lecturer at Jiaotong University's Antai Business School. He is co-author of The One Hour China Consumer Book (2015) and The One Hour China Book (2014), co-author of Operation China: From Strategy to Execution (2007) and the author of Capitalist China: Strategies for a Revolutionized Economy (2003). Woetzel holds a PhD in Political Science from the University of Southern California.

China Crossroads hosts talks on all topics related to China, including business, foreign policy, and other areas as they relate to China, the idea being that China is both already a "crossroads" of the world and itself at a "crossroads" in terms of its future global influence.
