Will the Chinese Yuan become the global currency? If so, this would require a systemic shift in China's management of its capital account. This talk will explore the costs and benefits of distinct currency arrangements for China and also examine the likelihood that the RMB will float in the next twenty years.

Rodrigo Zeidan is Associate Professor of Business and Finance and Chief Sustainability Liaison at NYU Shanghai. He is also a Visiting Professor at Fundação Dom Cabral and Senior Scholar at the Center for Sustainable Business at NYU Stern, as well as columnist at Folha de S. Paulo, Brazil's leading newspaper. He is author of Economics of Global Business (2018). He holds a PhD in Economics from the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro.

China Crossroads hosts talks on all topics related to China, including business, foreign policy, and other areas as they relate to China, the idea being that China is both already a "crossroads" of the world and itself at a "crossroads" in terms of its future global influence.
