

CHINA CROSSROADS

Thursday, August 15th, 2024, 19:30 – 21:00

Third Plenum and China's Economy: What Does It Mean for Business?

Han Lin

Professor of Finance at NYU Shanghai

China Country Head at The Asia Group

Former Deputy General Manager at Wells Fargo

Didier Magloire

Managing Director of Ripple Group

Former Chief Risk Officer at ANZ Bank Asia

Supported by:

JunHe LLP

Shanghai

JunHe LLP | Taikoo Hui #1 26F | 288 Shimen Yi Lu

200rmb admission with drink | FREE for members

Scan to RSVP or email editor@shanghai-review.org

This talk will engage the audience in the China economy by (1) looking at recent economic indicators, (2) summarizing key commercial-related themes from the Third Plenum, and (3) offering key predictions on the impact to foreign businesses.

Han Shen Lin is Associate Professor of Clinical Practice in the Finance Department of NYU Shanghai and is also the China Country Head at The Asia Group. Prior to this, he was a Senior VP and Deputy General Manager of Wells Fargo in China, where he helped lead the bank's China governance and oversaw its China corporate and commercial banking client coverage, strategy, and business development. Han received a BBA from the University of Michigan's Ross Business School, and later completed a Masters of International Studies at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS), a Masters of Science in Global Finance at the joint HKUST-NYU Stern program, and a Masters of Chinese Commercial Law at Fudan University Law School. Han has previously served on the Board of Governors of the American Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai, and has been the Chair of AmCham's Financial Services Committee.

Didier Magloire is Managing Director at Ripple Group and the Former Chief Risk Officer at ANZ Bank Asia and China. As a seasoned executive in international finance, Didier has a unique blend of leadership, economic, geopolitical and cultural expertise that drives business success. He focuses on continuous improvement and change management to build and lead high-performing leadership teams, develop sound infrastructure, and foster a robust corporate and risk culture. Didier is currently transitioning to a portfolio iNED career, keen to balance Board roles from within Banks & Financial Institutions, general corporate Enterprises and Start-ups, seeing him able to leverage his strong capabilities and experiences around governance, culture & business strategy. He has worked in New York, Tokyo, Hong Kong and Shanghai in risk management, new product development / approval and relationship management. As Chief Risk Officer for ANZ China and ANZ Asia, he managed one hundred people and oversaw Credit and Market Risk, Operational Risk, Strategic Risk, Compliance and Regulatory Relations in the region. Prior to that, Didier was Global Head of Financial Institutions, Sovereigns and Country Risk Management at ANZ Bank.

China Crossroads hosts talks on all topics related to China, including business, foreign policy, and other areas as they relate to China, the idea being that China is both already a "crossroads" of the world and itself at a "crossroads" in terms of its future global influence. For more information, contact Frank Tsai at editor@shanghai-review.org.