This talk asks the question of how resilient is China's economy in the long-term, and will analyze this in terms of the threats to long-term growth from tariffs, the debt crisis, and unfavorable demographics.

Wang Dan is China Director at Eurasia Group. Previously, she was Chief Economist at Hang Seng Bank China and China Analyst at EIU. She holds a PhD in Economics from the University of Washington.

China Crossroads hosts talks on all topics related to China, including business, foreign policy, and other areas as they relate to China, the idea being that China is both already a "crossroads" of the world and itself at a "crossroads" in terms of its future global influence.
