Graham's extensive contacts with International school principals in China in the past few years give him a unique perspective on developments in education and AI. He will be singing a few songs as usual, and discussing all sorts of other developments in books, China, life, and the universe in general.

Graham Earnshaw is a businessman, writer and musician with nearly 50 years experience in the China world. He is Publisher of Earnshaw Books and CEO and Managing Partner of SinoMedia. He has written several books, including the travel guide On Your Own in China (1984), Tales of Old Shanghai (2008) and an account of his continuing walk across China, The Great Walk of China (2010). He has also translated a novel by Louis Cha into English, which was published by Oxford University Press. He has produced a number of albums of his own songs. He speaks Mandarin and Cantonese fluently, and his English is considered to be acceptable.

China Crossroads hosts talks on all topics related to China, including business, foreign policy, and other areas as they relate to China, the idea being that China is both already a "crossroads" of the world and itself at a "crossroads" in terms of its future global influence.
