Given geopolitical headwinds including US tariffs and an increasingly hostile EU, China will need to shift away from the export-led growth model that has buoyed the economy in recent years. Our speaker will discuss other possibilities and assess the likelihood of their success.

Wang Dan is China Director at Eurasia Group. Previously, she was Chief Economist at Hang Seng Bank China and China Analyst at EIU. She holds a PhD in Economics from the University of Washington.

China Crossroads hosts talks on all topics related to China, including business, foreign policy, and other areas as they relate to China, the idea being that China is both already a "crossroads" of the world and itself at a "crossroads" in terms of its future global influence.
